

Your school trip planning guide

Paris

You can trust us to deliver

Voyager School Travel has specialised in educational trips for over 10 years & we are trusted with the travel plans of more than 35,000 students each year

We know that teachers' lives are demanding enough without the responsibility of running a school trip—so we'll use our considerable experience to support you before, during and after

Find out more

Uniquely immersive experiences

Our own highly trained native-speaking staff deliver an immersive learning programme that creates more educational outcomes than trips with other providers

Our own residential centres

Our European residential centres offer your group the highest quality instruction and care—which is why 85% of school groups return to our centres each year

Travel on our own coaches

The majority of groups travel with our specialist coach company, Pegasus Coaches, for a comfortable and reliable journey headed by our team of highly-rated drivers

Safe & financially protected

We maintain the highest safety standards as an assured member of the School Travel Forum. Our ABTA and ATOL member status means your booking is financially protected

How to book a school trip

Planning a school trip can feel daunting, that's why we aim to make the process as stress-free as possible.

Here's what to expect at every stage of your booking, from quote to departure.

We're here to help you make your trip a success, so don't hesitate to call upon our team for their assistance.

Find out more

Get a quote

Send our travel experts a few details about your group then receive a no-obligation quote for your trip.

Promote your trip

Time to spread the word—we can help with posters & presentations to get students & parents on board

Collect deposits

As soon as we have received the holding deposit we can confirm your booking and start organising your trip

Do the paperwork

Complete your risk assessment paperwork with the help of our health & safety resources and safety management system

Pay total

Your next payment is due eight weeks after the deposit and the final balance is due twelve weeks before the trip

Finalise details

A specialist tour coordinator will be in touch to finalise your itinerary and organise your travel documents

Attraction price guide

We've rounded up our top tried & tested attractions so you can customise your school trip itinerary.

Attractions with the £ symbol are paid for in advance by your specialist tour coordinator & you'll receive your tickets for these pre-departure.

Attractions with the € symbol require in-person payment in euros.

Free attractions are labelled FREE.

The price for each attraction is based on admission for under 16s. Prices for teachers may vary.

Up to £5 per student

Up to £10 per student

Over £10 per student

*Paid for in advance by our team

Up to €5 per student

Up to €10 per student

Over €10 per student

*Paid for in person by you

TIME TO GET INSPIRED

The image features a vibrant blue background with a large, circular sunburst pattern of lighter blue rays emanating from the center. Overlaid on this background is a stylized, hand-drawn text graphic. The text is contained within a black, irregular shape with a white outline, giving it a sticker-like appearance. The words "TIME TO" are in orange, while "GET INSPIRED" is in yellow. The font is bold and blocky, with a slight shadow effect.

Eiffel Tower

The port city of Caen's Memorial Museum is an essential stop for students studying WWII and the Battle for Caen. There is also a section displaying the history of the Cold War.

£££

Montparnasse Tower

For the best panoramic views of Paris, look no further than the Montparnasse Tower. The high-speed lift will shoot your group up the viewing platform on the 56th floor in just 38 seconds.

£££

Arc de Triomphe

It's enough to experience one of France's most iconic monuments from the ground—and a great photo opportunity. Buy a ticket to climb to the top and observe the frenzy of Champs-Élysées below.

£££

Champs-Élysées

Take a stroll along the buzzing tree-lined avenue famous for its luxury brand stores and showy cafés when you make your way to the Arc de Triomphe, which stands proudly at the end.

FREE

Seine River Cruise

Take in Paris from the waters of the river Seine on a cruise that will take you under many of the city's beautiful bridges. It's even more magical by night when the city of lights really comes alive.

£££

Montmartre

Explore the winding cobblestoned streets of this charming district, historically the playground of artists and writers. Marvel at the grand Sacré-Cœur atop the hill and take in the views of Paris.

FREE

Louvre

The largest art museum in the world is on most peoples' Paris wishlist—and it won't disappoint. Don't fancy facing massive crowds? Opt for one of the other art museums we've selected instead.

£££

Musée d'Orsay

Get lost amongst 5 floors of paintings, sculpture and decorative arts in a stunning former railway station right on the Seine. Notable artists include Monet, Cezanne, Toulouse-Lautrec & Van Gogh.

£££

Musée National Picasso

This museum houses some of Picasso's personal collection including celebrated French artists Cezanne and Matisse—in addition to the 3000 pieces from the prolific artist himself.

£££

Musée de l'Orangerie

This often-overlooked treasure in Tuileries Garden displays 8 spectacular panels of Monet's Water Lilies across 2 elliptical rooms—plus a seriously impressive collection of Impressionist art.

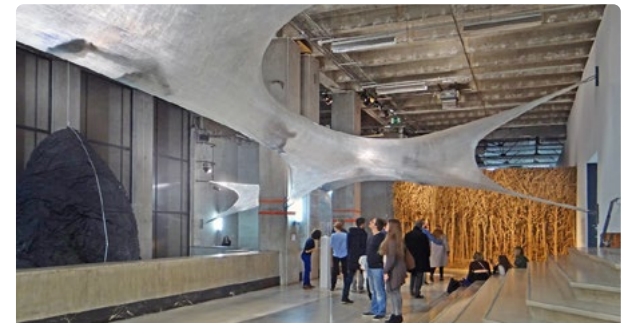

£££

Centre Pompidou

This unusual creative centre near the colourful Marais district boasts the largest collection of contemporary art in Europe. Enjoy views over Paris and the Eiffel Tower from the top floor.

£££

Palais de Tokyo

This hip cultural centre and its free permanent collection of contemporary art is definitely worth a wander through. Check it out on your way to or from the Eiffel Tower—a 15 min walk away.

FREE

The City of Science and Industry

The largest science museum in Europe is a top pick for science and technology groups. With exhibits for younger students and teenagers, there is something for every key stage.

£££

Musée Carnavalet

The Carnavalet Museum in Paris is dedicated to the history of the city. The museum occupies two neighboring mansions: the Hôtel Carnavalet and the former Hôtel Le Peletier de Saint Fargeau.

FREE

Musée de l'Armée

Groups studying the history of conflict can learn about warfare from the middle ages through to today here with one of the largest historic military collections in the world—plus Napoleon's tomb.

£££

Conciergerie

Take a tour of this revolution-era prison that once held Marie Antoinette prisoner. Your ticket includes a tablet that allows you to explore the rooms via augmented reality.

£££

Museum of Liberation

A unique insight into the Paris uprising through artefacts, photographs and footage. A poignant and informative must-see for students studying WWII or interested in the French occupation.

£££

History of Paris Film Experience

Bring the history of the French capital to life and watch as Paris transforms before your eyes in this private cinema experience displayed across three screens. Students can even listen in French, too!

££££

Lost in Frenchlation

Why not add an out-of-the-ordinary movie night to your trip? At Lost in Frenchlation, your students can experience some of the best films France has produced with English subtitles.

£££

FlyView Paris

Experience Paris from above on this unique visit. Students will strap into a jetpack to embark on a 360-degree virtual reality flight over the city and its most famous landmarks.

£££

Catacombs of Paris

Your students are sure to be fascinated by these underground ossuaries. The bones of six million people line the walls of the creepy tunnels. Very memorable—but not for the faint of heart!

£££

Escape Room

Put your students' problem-solving skills to the test in this fun activity. There are a selection of scenarios to choose from, but note that this activity is best suited for smaller groups.

£££

Les Halles

When groups want to factor in some free time for shopping, we recommend the centrally-located Les Halles. Step straight off the metro and into the mall, home to many recognisable brands.

FREE

Stade de France

Take a guided tour of the national stadium of France, used to host the French national football team and French rugby union team. This is sure to be a highlight for the football fans in your class.

£££

Disneyland® Paris

Just a 40-minute train ride from Gare du Nord, it's easy to add a magical day at Disneyland Paris to your trip—and we guarantee it will have students signing up for the trip en masse!

£££

Parc Astérix

Want all the thrills with fewer crowds? Parc Astérix is a great alternative to Disneyland Paris. The rides are suited to older students—plus, it's a fun way to experience more French culture.

£££

Jardin du Luxembourg

Certainly worth a visit anytime of year, but particularly in summer where your group can lounge on the lawns or grab a chair and recharge in the shade.

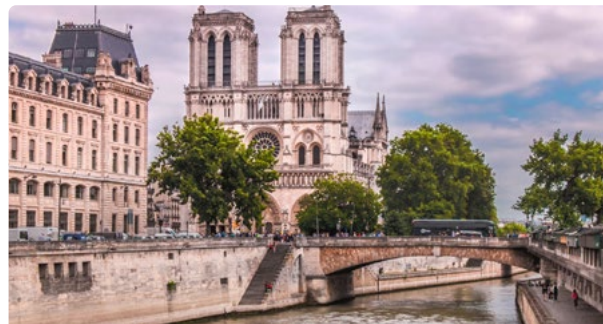

FREE

Covered Passages of Paris

Keep an eye out for these decorative shopping arcades from the 1800s if you find yourself in the 2nd district. The most impressive of the bunch? Passage des Panoramas & Galerie Vivienne.

FREE

Île de la Cité

Though Notre-Dame remains under construction, it's still worth heading to this island in the Seine to check out the famous Gothic cathedral. There's even an outdoor exhibition about the 2019 fire.

FREE

Receive school trip updates

Catch the latest photos, videos and reviews schools tweet while on their trips

Follow us

Everything you need to know before you go

School trip FAQs

All your questions about running a trip answered

Find out more

Visit our Travel Hub

More about how your booking is financially protected

Find out more

Health & safety resources

Downloads to assist with your risk assessments

Find out more

Follow us for the latest educational travel news and school trip updates voyagerschools

voyagerschooltravel